Anthony Wreath

26 May 1952

Dear Mr. Browne:

Miss Lutz has probably reported to you that our florists prepared a beautiful wreath for the Adams Society of Friends Descendants, and we now wish to thank you, as we do most cordially, for your generosity in making the wreath possible. We appreciated having this wreath from you all the more in view of the expensive portrait of Miss Anthony, which has just been provided for your library.

Cordially yours,

Ralph W. Sockman

Dear Dr. DeWitt:

It was most gracious of you to procure the wreaths which were presented for Miss Anthony and Thomas Paine, from the various Unitarian organizations, and I am beholden to you for your interest in this matter. The floral tributes were a beautiful high light of the occasion.

I sincerely hope that you enjoyed the exercises and were compensated in some small measure for your efforts.

With deep appreciation, believe me,

Faithfully yours,

Ralph W. Sockman

Dear Miss Mosher:

We are beholden to you and your sister for the floral tribute in memory of Miss Anthony and her sisters. We were happy indeed that one of you could attend the ceremony - I don't recall at the moment which one of you was there. The floral tributes added an agreeable note to the occasion.

With deep appreciation, believe me,

Cordially yours,

Ralph W. Sockman

Dear Dr. Elicker:

I am sorry that you could not attend the ceremony on the 18th at the Hall of Fame to see how beautifully the honor student, Miss Lucille Collinson, acquitted herself in the presentation of the floral tribute for Miss Anthony. There were a great number of wreaths and flowers for Miss Anthony, and they all gave a distinctive note to the occasion.

With deep appreciation of your cooperation, believe me,

Cordially yours,

Ralph W. Sockman

Dear Mrs. Combs:

I wish to thank you, as I do rather belatedly, for your kindness in providing the wreath which was presented by Dr. Paul, on behalf of the World Woman's Party. This floral tribute, together with all of the others which were presented on the 18th of May, were a very colorful addition to the ceremony.

With deep appreciation, believe me,

Cordially yours,

Ralph W. Sockman
